

Compromise Seen In Baggage Strike; Will Decide To-day

Union Men to Consider New Terms Offered by Express Companies: Action Comes After 14-Hour Conference

Baggage men on strike since Monday will consider to-day compromise terms offered by the two transfer companies. It was announced last night at the close of a conference lasting fourteen hours in the offices of the Public Service Commission. The companies have offered to grant wage increases, but not to the amount originally demanded by the union.

Alfred M. Barrett, Acting Commissioner, said he expected the baggage men would be at work again on Monday.

Members of Local 645, International Brotherhood of Teamsters, will meet in the Central Opera House, at Fifty-seventh Street and Third Avenue, at 2 o'clock to-day. According to Martin Lacey, business agent, it is up to the men to accept or reject the new terms, which the companies declare are the best they can offer. Reduction in hours is not included in these terms. The details were not made public.

Commissioner Barrett, James P. Conroy, secretary, and Henry W. Chamberlain, attorney for the Public Service Commission, put in a "heavy non-union" day discussing with both sides every phase of their differences. It is hinted that an increase in baggage rates may be necessary to provide wage increases. The Public Service Commission has concluded the companies' inability to break even at present rates, if employees get more pay. Samuel W. F. Draper, president of the New York Transfer Company, and G. C. Lambert, general manager of the Westcott Express Company, represented the employers at the conference. Mr. Lacey, John Ash, George Daly and Edward Wiegner represented the union employees.

West Virginia Private Mine Guards Removed

Action Taken to Prevent Clashes With Strikers; One De- fective Shot

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Aug. 28.—To eliminate clashes between striking miners and private mine guards at Willis Branch, W. Va., the latest of which occurred to-day, Governor John J. Cornwell and Colonel Jackson S. Arnold, commander of the state police, to-night requested the Willis Branch Coal Company to remove the guards from its property.

Shortly after the request was forwarded, the Governor received notification from officials of the company that the guards had been disarmed and ordered to leave for their station at Bluefield at once. Colonel Arnold said to-night he expected no further outbreaks at Willis Branch.

The shooting to-day resulted in the wounding of a guard, Major Payne. One man was arrested by state troopers. The situation was quiet to-night.

Captain Arnold declared that fights between the guards and striking miners at Willis Branch had occurred frequently since last November, when a strike of miners went into effect there.

Mauretania Passengers Held Up by Pier Strike

Cunard Steamship Brings 1,525 From Southampton and Cherbourg

The Cunard Line steamship Mauretania, which arrived early yesterday from Southampton and Cherbourg with 1,525 passengers, did not land her passengers until 5:30 p. m.

Because of the strike of the longshoremen and the delayed departure of the Aquitania, the Mauretania did not move from her anchorage until 4:15 p. m.

The Cunard Line had mustered up enough non-union waterfront workers to handle the passengers' baggage, and this was taken ashore with little delay. The vessel carried 454 first, 446 second and 625 third class passengers. The latter were made up exclusively of Czechs-Slovaks.

Miss Edith Hansen Ott, a Girl Scout of Copenhagen, dressed in a scout uniform, came over to write her impressions of America as part of the 23,000-mile journey which she is making for a Danish newspaper.

Joseph Jackson, a saloon passenger, died on the run across. His body was brought to port.

Among others aboard were H. L. Peters, Colin H. Livingston and Ronald C. Lindsay.

Two Negroes Lynched For Striking Down Guard

Attorney Later Declares One Innocent of Attack Made in Quitting Chain Gang

CORINTH, Miss., Aug. 28.—Blutcher Higgins and Dan Callout, negroes, who surrendered yesterday after escaping from the county chain gang, were hanged to-day to a telegraph pole just outside the jail after a mob had forced the jailer to turn over his keys.

In making their escape, it was alleged, Higgins and Callout struck down and severely injured one of the guards. Two other prisoners escaped at the same time, but one of these was recaptured.

County Attorney Johnston declared that "at least one" of the negroes lynched was innocent of any part in the attack on the guard.

Three Slain in Rum War

Oklahoma Deputy Sheriff, Dry Agent and Negro Killed

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Aug. 28.—Home Afton, deputy county sheriff; Stanley E. Weiss, Federal prohibition officer, and Charlie Chandler, negro and an alleged moonshiner, were killed, and Claude Tyler, another deputy county sheriff, was seriously wounded near Arcadia, twenty miles northeast of here, early to-day, when the officers attempted to raid a still, according to a telephone message from Federal officers at Guthrie to the United States marshal's office here. A posse departed for the scene of the shooting. The report said that other negroes, armed with rifles, were guarding all approaches to the still.

Truck Firm Quits Business

County Clerk William F. Schneider yesterday received the following letter: "The firm of Samuel H. Seals, doing business as D. Seals & Co., has this day gone out of business. Cause: Prohibition. Please take note of it. Samuel H. Seals."

The concern did a trucking business at 31 South Street.

An Early Importation From Paris

The Veil Draped Hat

Among the new French imports in the Millinery world, no vogue stands out more distinctly than that of the draped-veil.

The model pictured is a charming representative of this latest style note from Paris. A gently rolling upturned hat of black plush, it is trimmed with a soft gracefully draped veil of Chantilly Lace, caught with a single jet ornament.

Notable as it is for its emphasis of the new mode, together with a beguiling picturesqueness of effect, it is nevertheless but one of many styles introducing some phase of the veil treatment.

Other equally lovely models are now on display in our French Room, where there is a splendid collection of original models, adaptations and copies.

Models in all black are varied by those in rust colorings and copper tones, those suit and fur shades that carry all the richness of early Fall.
